EASTER SERVICE IN THE CHURCHES OF TONOPAH

Sunday school was held at 10 o'clock as usual. At 11 o'clock the children's Easter exercises took the place of the morning sermon. The house was packed even to the vestibule. The program was well rendered. A missionary tour around the world, giving a history of missions in the various countries, was the principal feature.

An offertory for foreign missions was taken amounting to $21.85. The church was beautifully decorated by the ladies of the church with lilies, tulips, carnations and smilax. Too much praise cannot be given Mrs. Hunt for her services in decorating the church.

The evening service was one of the finest conducted there in many days. The building was literally crammed, chairs were crowded into every available space, all standing room was occupied and many people were turned away from the door for the lack of room to accommodate them. The weather, though inclement, did not check the people from gathering for this service.

Seven new members were received into the communion of this church at this service. Rev. R. W. Bayless spoke for a few minutes on the "Resurrection." He said that all nature spoke very plainly of a resurrection, and every spring we have positive evidence of this fact. Jesus while on earth said, "I am the resurrection, and the life." It was said of Christ "that He arose the first fruits of them that slept." Also that He brought "life and immortality to light." The speaker emphasized that Christ brought life to light. And that through His resurrection He enables us to really live now, upon the highest plane of manhood.

A beautiful solo, "Suffer Little Children," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Lenore Hollender-Hanby.

The sacred cantata, "The King Triumphant," which was rendered by the choir, was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Much praise is due Mrs. Bayless, the organist, for her excellent rendering of the music.

The ladies are to have a tea at the church from 2 till 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies of the town to come and enjoy a pleasant social hour and a cup of tea, possibly something with it. The writer is not informed. The annual congregational meeting is to be held in the church Wednesday evening at 7:30. Election of trustees, making arrangements for a minister for the church and other important business will come up at this meeting.

TONOPAHNS ENJOY A 160 MILE DRIVE SUNDAY

FOUR AUTO LOADS SPEND EASTER SUNDAY IN SMOKY VALLEY

A party of eighteen Tonopah people enjoyed a picnic yesterday at Darragh's hot springs, it requiring four automobiles to convey. Kelley Bros. gave the party. Machines were furnished by Messrs. Kirchen, Kelley, Stewart and Campbell. A splendid dinner, Italian style, was enjoyed. The site of the outing is 80 miles from Tonopah. On return of the party John Wesley Stewart was presented with a beautiful leather medal by Master Mechanic Reed of the Tonopah Extension and was given the title of the Barney Oldfield of Nevada. Round Mountain and Manhattan were visited on the trip and the mahogany was plentifully decorated.

WILL GIVE AUTO AWAY

An Overland touring car is to be given away by eight merchants of this city, one of which is the Tonopah Hardware company. Details of the manner of making the present will later be announced in the Bonanza.

Certificates of location on sale at the Bonanza office.

In many respects the observance of Easter day may be considered the most important anniversary within the history of the calendar of the church. The solemnity and mourning of the Lenten season have given place to the birth of the glorious sunlight of Eastertide, and the christian world recognizes and appreciates that this is the period for rejoicing in commemoration of the potential fact that Jesus Christ conquered death, and that he was, and is today, as promised, the risen Lord, the Saviour of the world.

The various denominations in Tonopah held appropriate services commemorative of the great event, and St. Mark's Episcopal church participated with the rest in paying homage to the resurrection of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords. The altar and chancel of the church were beautifully adorned with the delicate lilies of the valley, and the musical portion of the programme as rendered by the choir was of a most commendable character, and in this connection, Miss Orrett, who sang the offertory solo, "Perfect Day," is deserving of special mention. The pastor chose his text from the 1st Epistle of St. Peter, 1-3 verses; also from the 14th chap. of St. John, 9th verse. The discourse was replete with the beautiful attributes that dominated the character of Jesus Christ.

The following announcements were made: Sunday school at 10 o'clock next Sunday morning. Celebration of holy communion at 4 p. m. and baptism; evening prayer and sermon at 7:30 as usual. A confirmation class will be organized on Sunday afternoon in preparation for the visit of the bishop on Whit Sunday. A meeting of the Ladies' guild will be held at 2 o'clock Friday, and a full attendance is earnestly desired. On Monday evening, the 12th inst., a meeting of the congregation will take place to receive general reports in connection with the work of the church, and also for the election of a new vestry for the ensuing year.

Holy week was celebrated with the usual services at St. Patrick's Catholic church and on Sunday the Easter services were given with great solemnity at high mass at 10 o'clock.

The choir gave an excellent rendition of Gloria's magnificent mass in G, which is of the Italian school and contains some beautiful work for both choir and soloists.

Particularly we must mention the "Et in Spiritum Sanctum," rendered most artistically by Miss Muriel Robb, the soprano, who sang with more power than usual.

Miss Laura Fariello is a decided acquisition to the choir and showed a fine contralto voice of considerable power in her solo, "Qui Tollis Peccata." The bass solo was also rendered in an efficient manner, whilst the work of the choir was all that could be desired.

Mr. Arthur Borrow's offertory, "The Anjus Animam," from Rossini's Stabat Mater, was given the full force which he always applies to his singing and was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Hiram Bilyeau officiated at the organ with her usual ability and contributed much to the success of the mass. Mr. W. E. Gilliam is an excellent violinist and gave entire satisfaction as leader.

We understand that Mr. Borrow has been requested to repeat the same music next Sunday and has consented to do so, so that those who could not get seats last Sunday will have the opportunity to do so next Sunday. Mr. Borrow directed the music with his usual ability.

BUTLER THEATER

At the Butler this evening a very interesting program has been arranged, as follows: Hearst-Selig Weekly of Current Events, with scenes of interest from all over the world; the fable of "The Bachelor and the Back Pedal," a George Ade comedy—full of laughs, and "The Tragedy of Bear Mountain," a two-reel Kalem drama. With her husband reported dead, Edith Barry is just about to marry James Benton when a telegram is received which proves the report to have been wrong. In fact, the minister is pronouncing the words when the message arrives. Charlie, the husband, left for the west when he found it impossible to secure a position in his home town—a condition brought about by Benton, his former employer. The latter, fascinated by Edith, schemed and plotted to separate husband and wife. He almost succeeded, but everyone will be thrilled to the core when they learn how Fate takes a hand in foiling the schemer. Tomorrow, "The $20,000,000 Mystery," with the old cast of players. Coming Friday, Charles Chaplin, the great comedian, who appears in his first two-reel Essanay comedy, "His New Job."—Adv.
